Salad Bars for Georgia Schools

In partnership with Let's Move Salad Bars to Schools and CBS Atlanta, the Atlanta Falcons Youth Foundation is donating salad bars to 15 Georgia schools. Schools must submit applications by February 15, 2012, to be considered for the first round of salad bar donations. Schools must apply through the Let's Move Salad Bar online portal: <http://saladbars2schools.org/apply>. AFYF will announce winning schools in early March. The project is part of AFYF's ongoing work to reduce childhood obesity and improve youth fitness in Georgia. Any Georgia K-12 school or school district participating in the National School Lunch Program is eligible to apply. Read more.

24 APS Students Awarded Posse Scholarships

Twenty-four students from nine Atlanta Public Schools have been awarded 2012 Posse Foundation Scholarships. The Posse Foundation provides scholarships for students around the nation to attend one of 39 colleges and universities. Posse identifies public high school students with extraordinary academic and leadership potential that may be overlooked by the traditional college selection processes. Posse extends the opportunity to pursue personal and academic excellence by placing students in supportive, multicultural teams-Posses-of 10 students. Every Posse Scholar is awarded a four-year, full-tuition leadership scholarship to a prestigious college or university. Read more.

Atlanta Beltline - Gaining National Attention

The Atlanta BeltLine is an inspiring and forward-thinking project gaining national attention. Salon.com featured the Beltline and six other groundbreaking projects around the country. This year, the Beltline's Eastside Trail will open. It's a 2.5-mile section that connects Piedmont Park and the Martin Luther King Jr. district. The BeltLine will give Atlanta some much-needed green space and reconnect neighborhoods long separated by unused dead space. Read more.
