Pop Up Art Kicks Off!

Join the excitement as pa across the city of Atlanta alive with high-energy, a performances and hands workshops for children and youth.

Stay tuned.

You never know which ar experiences will "pop up" your neighborhood!

Pop Up Art is a series of live arts experiences at several City of Atlanta parks and recreation centers. Young Audiences, Woodruff Arts Center performers and visual artists are popping up at Washington Park, Vine City Park, Thomasville Recreation Center of Hope and Adamsville Recreation Center of Hope and other sites near you. The high-energy performances are suitable for all ages. The project is made possible by a grant from The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation and created through the work of Young Audiences, Woodruff Arts Center and Park Pride. Visit the Pop Up Art Calendar to see when the arts are coming to your park or recreation center.

Atlanta BeltLine Bike Tour

Join us for the 2012 Atlanta BeltLine Bike Tour and experience this transformative project as it hits its stride! With the Eastside Trail slated to open this summer, the project is poised to take a huge leap forward. It's an exciting time to be a fan of the BeltLine, which will connect Atlanta by creating greenspace, trails, transit, and new development along 22 miles of historic rail segments that encircle the city's urban core. We hope you'll join us May 5th for an intimate view of Atlanta's present and past, and a glimpse into what the future holds.
