

Pathways to Success – Q4 2020 Grants

Techbridge	$125,000	To expand existing programming to youth, through training in high-demand tech skills and hands-on experience through apprenticeships.
PCXGO!	$125,000	For support the eSports Career Pathways Project designed to build, connect, and maintain the eSports education and career pipeline for high school students in 9th – 12th grades.
HYPE	$60,000	To provide tech and career readiness training for high school girls by connecting them with internship opportunities and women in tech mentors.
Cxmmunity	$25,000	To support Cxmmunity’s Career Readiness and Placement Program designed to educate students and educators on eSports career paths.
Brown Toy Box	$60,000	To provide at-home STEAM kits for elementary and middle school kids to supplement virtual learning through the Brown Toy Box Parent Engagement Atlanta Pilot Program.