

The Arthur M. Blank Family Foundation - March 2021 COVID Relief Grants
Grantee	Grant Overview	Grant Amount
Georgia
Fair Count	For the Road to Recovery: Count Me In campaign to fight COVID vaccine disinformation.	$250,000
Interfaith Youth Core	For 10 Atlanta area colleges and universities to join the Faith in the Vaccines Ambassador program	$500,000
New Georgia Project	For a targeted outreach campaign aimed at providing individualized support for Georgians 65 years of age and older to receive the vaccine at Mercedes Benz Stadium.	$150,000
Black Voters Matter	For a COVID vaccine campaign targeting GA's poorest counties, providing residents with so they can make informed choices about vaccine participation	$100,000
Pro Georgia	To distribute small grants to community-based organizations reaching underserved Georgians of color in 33 counties.	$150,000
Action Inc	For the Full Plate program to deliver 15,000 meals to low-income families, victims of domestic violence and homeless families in its 10-county service region where 1 in 5 children are food insecure.	$35,000
Montana
Livingston Food Resource Center	To serve Park County through food access, as well as mental health services.	$35,000
Hopa Mountain	To support the coordination of local response efforts in rural and tribal communities across the region through to access healthy food, critical supplies, and PPE.	$25,000
Thrive	To ensure programs continue to support community members most in need and provide flexibility for Thrive to address individual family needs.	$20,000
Once Valley Community Foundation (Greater Gallatin United Way)	For Phase Two of the COVID Response and Recovery Fund, the fund will distribute smaller grants to organizations across rural areas in Gallatin, Park, Madison, and Meagher counties.	$25,000
Greater Gallatin United Way	For United Way's Resilience Project has provided supportive workshops to more than 50 government entities, nonprofits, businesses, schools, and health care organizations	$55,000
Rural Behavioral Health Institute	To improve the mental health of those living in Montana and other rural US regions by disseminating clinically proven digital mental health care.	$65,000
Park County Community Foundation	To increase capacity to more effectively support the nonprofit community and plan how to strengthen this moving forward.	$75,000
Mountain Shadow Association	To provide operating support to advance restorative justice efforts that and is aligned with the AMBFF DIE Council funding priorities.	$60,000
Montana Free Press	For operating support and is aligned with the AMBFF democracy and journalism focus area.	$20,000
Total		$1,565,000